Auction

6 p.m. - 9 p.m.

Held at

Central Street Antiques

25 Central Street

Windsor, CT

Dear Friends and Colleagues:

Winter is coming and the holidays are almost here! New Englanders get through the dark days by decorating our homes and celebrating the holidays, having dinner in or dining out with friends, indulging ourselves with massages, spa treatments, fine jewelry, and contemplating beautiful or just plain happy works of art. Planning a getaway, escaping to a vacation spot, and dreaming of gardens helps too. And there's nothing like giving to others to put joy into dark days of winter. We can help you out with all of this tonight – we're so glad you're here!

Your successful auction bids support:

- The many public programs and events we offer for school children and adults;
- Preservation of our museum and library collections and our historic buildings for future generations to enjoy.

Our auction requires no sales tax or buyer's premium so bid generously and bid often. It's all for a good cause.

Many people have helped to make this auction possible. Thanks go to auction committee members who have solicited auction items, organized the displays, and prepared and served food: Sharran Selig Bennett, John Berky, Marilyn Boehm, Ruth Fahrback, Lee Fongemie, Dave Gillette, Laura Jary, Cathy Lavalley, Bob McAllister, Dorothy McAllister, Willa Nemetz, Ed Paquette, Margaret Quigley, Nancy Von Hollen, and Colette Yeich. Thanks to our many community-spirited donors whose items you will be bidding on tonight and to the many volunteers who helped with organization of auction items, moving and set-up, registration, and a host of other auction-related tasks. Donor names are with the descriptions of auction items they contributed, and volunteer names are at the end of the booklet. Special thanks to:

- Central Street Antiques Company for donating this beautiful space;
- Frank and John Carmon who will be our auctioneers tonight;
- Eight volunteers from Windsor Federal Savings Bank: Lucia Gentles, Kathy Mendola, Linda Molod, Zandra Persaud, Maureen Sullivan, Nancy Tollefson, and Sandy Valvo;
- Seven student volunteers from Windsor High School's Key Club: Keisha Gabriel, Jenna Gilbert, Aubree Hayles, Victoria Huertas, Joe Kilney, Evan McKinney Gabby Wages, and Anieka Walker.

So have fun, be adventurous, and be generous this evening. All of us at Windsor Historical Society thank you for being with us and supporting us tonight.

Sincerely,

Christine Ermenc
Executive Director, Windsor Historical Society
